

PERENNIAL

↑ Height 3-5'
Width 1-3' ←→

☼
MED WET

☀ F ☀ P

Photo: Wikipedia

Veronicastrum virginicum

Culver's Root

Family: Plantaginaceae/Plantain

Garden Companions

- Echinacea purpurea
- Ratibida pinnata
- Vernonia noveboracensis

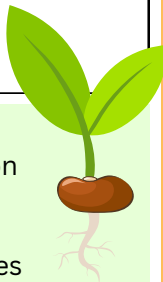

Notes

- Growth habit: clumping/upright
- Attracts beneficial insects
- Low-maintenance
- Deadhead flowers to extend bloom
- Threatened in Massachusetts

 Cape Cod Native	 Blooms July to August
	 Caterpillar/Moth Host Plant	 Provides Nest Site/ Nest Materials
 Provides Bird Seeds/Fruit	 Container Friendly		 Recommended by Xerces Society
 Rabbit Resistant	 Deer Resistant

Propagation Information

- Seeds germinate in a warm location without pre-treatment
- Self-seeds and spreads by rhizomes slowly
- Propagate by division

Summer Bloomer

DRAWN FROM SEED